SELF-PAY PATIENT INFORMATION

This guide provides an overview of consultant fees for self-paying patients. Following your consultation, you will receive a personalised treatment plan together with a clear explanation of any recommended investigations, procedures and their associated fees.

UNDERSTANDING THE FEES

Some procedures are shown as a fee range rather than a single amount.

Fee ranges may vary depending on:

- Unilateral or bilateral surgery
- Open or robotic surgical approach
- The complexity of the procedure

A personalised quotation will always be provided before your treatment.

WHAT IS INCLUDED?

The fees listed in this guide are consultant fees only.

Additional charges may apply for:

- Hospital fees
- Anaesthetist fees
- Pathology or laboratory tests
- Imaging or diagnostic investigations
- Medical devices and implants (where applicable)

These charges are billed separately by the relevant provider.

BEFORE YOUR PROCEDURE

Before any treatment you will receive:

- A personalised treatment recommendation
- A full explanation of your proposed procedure
- An outline of the expected recovery
- A personalised quotation before proceeding with treatment.
